

Carpool Colouring

Green-Schools Travel

Name: _____ Class _____

Some people live too far to walk, cycle or scoot to school and have to take the car. One way to be green is to carpool to school. Carpooling is when students from more than one household travel in the same car.

Can you think of three ways that carpooling might help the environment?

Do you live near anyone you could carpool with?
