

What I see and hear coming to school

Think of all the different things you see and hear when you walk to school.

Now draw pictures of all the different things you see in the empty boxes and write the sounds they make on the line.

The first one has been done for you.

buzz buzz

