

Marine Environment

- ★ Ireland is situated in the North Ocean.
- ★ There are over 250,000 different types of plants and that live in the sea.
- ★ Irelands marine environment is home to the shark, the second largest shark in the world.
- ★ Irelands West coast is known for its shellfish, like Oysters and
- ★ Oceans provide half of the we breathe on planet Earth.
- ★ is an ingredient taken from Seaweed that is used to make jellies and ice cream.
- ★ Marine is one of the biggest problems facing our oceans today
- ★ makes up over 70% of the litter in the oceans.
- ★ Microbeads, tiny balls of plastic, can be found in some and body scrubs.
- ★ Microbeads can soak up chemicals andmarine life.
- ★ fishing occurs when fishing nets have been lost or dumped at sea and continue to catch fish.
- ★ Plastic can get caught up in large swirls of water in the oceans, causing

Answers:

Plastic Islands	Litter	Seaweed	Fishing	Basking	Atlantic
Oxygen	Toothpastes	Plastic	Mussels	Animals	Poison