

Green-Schools National Marine Creative Writing Competition 2023

Terms & Conditions of Entry

1. Number of Entries: Primary schools may submit up to three individual entries per age category, and therefore a maximum of nine entries per school. Secondary Schools may submit a maximum of nine entries per school. Individual students may not submit multiple entries. We recommend that teachers run a school or class competition and submit the top entries from this to the Green-Schools competition.

2. Word count: Entries should be no more than 500 words.

3. Format: Entries can be either a short story or a poem. Entries may be typed (preferred) or hand-written, but all entries must be submitted through the online entry form (see below). Entries may be submitted in English.

4. Methods of Entry: Entries must be submitted through the online entry form at the following link: www.greenschoolsireland.org/national-marine-creative-writing-competition-2023

Entries can either be typed/pasted into the space provided or for handwritten entries, a scan or image of the entry can be uploaded through the form. Please ensure that scans are clear and legible; poor quality or illegible images will be disqualified.

If a teacher is submitting multiple entries from one school, a separate form must be used for each entry.

5. Contact details: Entries must be submitted through the online form and include all the required details for the entrant and his/her school for correspondence purposes.

6. Closing Date: Entries must be received by 4pm, Friday 10th March 2023.

7. Notification: Competition winners will be announced and winning entries will be publicised during Green-Schools Marine Week (24-28th April 2023). Competition winners will be contacted in April. Unsuccessful entrants will not be notified.

8. Judging: A panel of judges will select the winning entries. The judges' decision is final. No correspondence relating to the competition will be entered into.

9. Returns: Entrants should keep a copy of their work. Green-Schools is unable to return any entries to schools.

10. Prizes: There will be one overall national winner for each age category; each 1st place winner will receive a trophy, €100 book token, a whale or dolphin adoption from the Irish Whale and Dolphin Group and a writing workshop for their class from Poetry Ireland (scheduling of workshop is subject to availability). 2nd place winners will receive a trophy and a €75 book token; 3rd place winners will receive a trophy and a €50 book token. Equivalent prizes may be offered subject to availability.

11. Publicity: Winners may be asked to take part in competition publicity including being photographed by the media. Winning entries will be read or displayed during Green-Schools

Marine Week online event from 24-28th April 2023. Winning students may be asked to read their winning entry at a live or pre-recorded online event for Green-Schools.

12. Eligibility: The competition is open to all registered Green-Schools who are working on, or have been awarded, the Global Citizenship: Marine Environment theme.

Entries must not have been published, self-published, published on any website, blog or online forum, broadcast, have won or been placed (2nd, 3rd, runner up etc) in any other competition (excluding internal school/class competition).

13. Consent: By submitting an entry to the competition you declare that the work is the original work solely owned and created by the entrant. You give permission that Green-Schools Ireland and the sponsor the Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage may reproduce the work or any part of it online on their websites and social media platforms, at online Green-Schools Marine Week events and in any anthology, newsletter or report which Green-Schools or the Department may produce, without payment to the entrant. The work may be edited or unedited, as long as the author is credited.

14. Queries can be directed to the Global Citizenship Marine Environment Team
