

THE GLOBAL GOALS

For Sustainable Development

Everyone Can Be A Goalkeeper

Before you start this activity its important to understand what the Global goals are

Watch this introductory video on the Global Goals
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cBxN9E5f7pc&t=10s>

Try to answer these Questions from the video;

What are the Global Goals aiming to achieve?

Why are they important?

How many Goals are there?

Who is responsible for achieving the Global Goals?

Next Question

- Do you think young people have a responsibility to achieve the Global Goals?
- How can young people make a difference to the Global Goals?

Watch this video to see how even from a very young age children and young people have been making an impact on the Global Goals.

Explore the Worlds Largest Lesson Map

Explore the map below to see what other schools in your area and around the world are doing to take action on the Global Goals.

<https://worldslargestlesson.globalgoals.org/map/index.html>

Next..How to become a Goalkeeper

(not someone that stops footballs..someone who takes action on the global goals!!)

What is special about you that makes you unique?

What kind of person do you want to be when you are older?

Write down as many words as you can, it is important that you don't write down physical characteristics (e.g Tall, short) but rather words that describe skills and knowledge... see the next slide for examples...

Write a list of your answers on a piece of paper or make a word cloud like the one below on www.wordart.com

Create a Goalkeeper Portrait

- Pick your top 3 words from your list.
- Draw/ paint or create a collage image of yourself
- Use this image and the 3 words to create a Goalkeeper portrait.
- It can also be done as an online activity here <https://wllgoalkeeperme.globalgoals.org/>
- Display your Goalkeeper portrait for all to see!

Now you are ready to take your first action!

- You know the skills you have become a Goalkeeper, are you ready to take action for the Global Goals?!

Questions to ask:

What actions can you start taking for the Goals today?

What do you want to do for the Goals as a class?

What questions do you have about the Goals?

Watch the last Worlds Largest Lesson video for inspiration on how to get started !
