

We are Water Protectors

by Carole Lindstrom and Illustrated by Michaela Goade

Global Goals Book Club

On the occasion of International Day of Indigenous People, we are excited to showcase a captivating book that amplifies Indigenous voices - We are Water Protectors by Carole Lindstrom, with stunning illustrations by Michaela Goade. This book is accompanied by enlightening videos and a concise activity, encouraging students to explore climate action through the distinctive lens of Indigenous perspectives. It further inspires them to take proactive steps in becoming water protectors themselves.

Activities & Age Groups in this Packet:

- River Action: junior infants - 5th class
- Take the Pledge: junior infants - 5th class

Start watching now:

We Are Water Protectors Reading

See Water Protectors in Action!

Michaela Goade Illustrating Process