

October - Nature Spotter Sheet

Teasel seed heads turn brown and spiky!

Goldfinches often feed on Teasel in autumn

Dog Rose Hips can be used to make syrup!

October is a great time to spot squirrels who are out searching for seeds and nuts

Silver Birch seeds will be blown like confetti in the wind

Ivy flowers are an important food source in autumn