Timeline Activity Sheet

"Every life has a story. It's easier to understand someone when you know their story."

Below draw a timeline of your story, it can include a special day, a chore you have to do, or even sports practice.

A timeline activity sheet template. It features a central horizontal line with six rounded rectangular boxes connected by short segments. From each of these boxes, a green arrow points either up or down to a larger rectangular box. The arrows alternate: up, down, up, down, up, down. This layout is designed for a child to draw a sequence of events in their life.
