

TRUE OR FALSE QUIZ – JUNIOR EDITION

Decide if a statement is true or false.

This is a horse.

TRUE

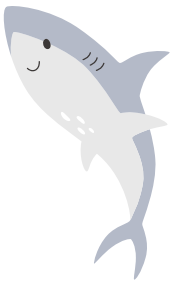

FALSE

Ireland is completely surrounded by water.

TRUE

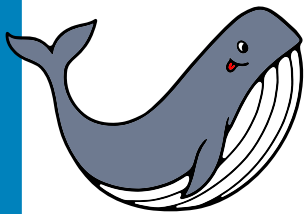

FALSE

There are no sharks in Ireland.

TRUE

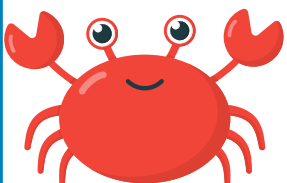

FALSE

Blue Whales are the biggest animal on the planet.

TRUE

FALSE

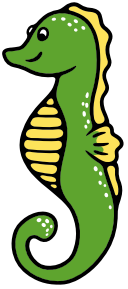

All crabs are red in colour.

TRUE

FALSE

TRUE OR FALSE QUIZ – JUNIOR EDITION – ANSWERS

Decide if a statement is true or false.

This is a horse. (It's a seahorse)

TRUE

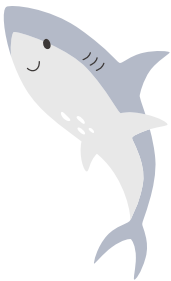

FALSE

Ireland is completely surrounded by water.

TRUE

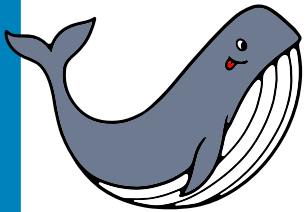

FALSE

There are no sharks in Ireland. (There are around 42 species of shark in Ireland)

TRUE

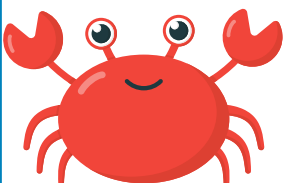

FALSE

Blue Whales are the biggest animal on the planet.

TRUE

FALSE

All crabs are red in colour. (Crabs come in all different kinds of colours)

TRUE

FALSE

TRUE OR FALSE WALKING POLL

– JUNIOR EDITION

Instructions for teacher: All students need to stand in the middle of the room. Decide for one wall to be the 'true' wall and the opposite wall to be the 'false' wall. Read out the statements and let the kids decide if a statement is true or false by standing by the chosen wall.

- |  |       |
|--|-------|
| 1. Most of deep sea is still unexplored.                                   | TRUE  |
| 2. Some sharks species already lived when the dinosaurs were still around. | TRUE  |
| 3. Polar Bears live in the Antarctic. (They live in the Arctic)            | FALSE |
| 4. Arctic Terns are a type of fish. (No, they are a type of seabird)       | FALSE |
| 5. Cod is a large fish with a barble on its bottom jaw.                    | TRUE  |
| 6. Elephant Seals have lots of blubber and overheat easily.                | TRUE  |
| 7. Krill are very small fish. (No, they are zooplankton)                   | FALSE |